

Reggio Emilia Australia Information Exchange

re search for a new culture of childhood

MEMBERSHIP APPLICATION

The Reggio Emilia Australia Information Exchange (REAIE) is the appointed reference by Reggio Children, Reggio Emilia, for facilitating dialogue and the exchange of information between Australia and the educators in the city of Reggio Emilia. The purpose of the organisation is to advocate for the rights and potentials of young children in Australian educational settings. REAIE publishes the CHALLENGE Journal and provides support to educators and parents, study tours to Reggio Emilia, conferences, exhibitions and special research projects. REAIE members come from Australia, New Zealand and the Pacific Basin. REAIE is supported by a bequest from the Frank Leyden Tot Ed Foundation, (Trust Company Ltd as Trustee)

MEMBERSHIP BENEFITS

1. The Challenge Journal

Australian and international educators and other professionals who have been challenged by the pedagogical project in Reggio Emilia, share their work, their experiences and their thinking in this journal.

2. E-Newsletters

Members receive regular updates about:

- conferences and professional learning programs
- study tours
- network groups
- resources

3. Network Support

Members are supported to form their own networks or to join existing networks for the purpose of collaboration and professional learning.

4. Scholarships and Study Grants

Open to Individual Members only, scholarships and study grants assist in providing greater access to REAIE professional learning opportunities.

5. Discount Rates for Professional Learning

Individual members receive discounts for all REAIE professional learning programs (excluding the study tours to Reggio Emilia). Organisational members are entitled to individual member rates when the organisation arranges and pays for registrations. For organisational registrations at concession rates please contact the office.

 In attempting to fulfil its mission of providing access to membership and professional learning for as many people as possible, REAIE faces a dilemma. By keeping registrations affordable, we have not always managed to cover our expenses. However, rates of remuneration for those working in services for children are often extremely low. We have therefore decided to offer additional concession memberships for individuals and organisations.
